DISCUSS NOTE TO BE SENT TO ROUMANIA

(By Associated Press)
Paris, Nov. 13.—The Supreme Council today discussed the note to be sent Rumania. In response to Rumania's recent note. The allies reply it is fore-casted, will be very firm in tone, the Rumanian note being regarded as evasive and unsatisfactory especially as concerns the demand for the evacuation of Hungary by the Rumanians. The Allied note was not completed today, but it will be put in shape very shortly and forwarded within two days. The report received from Sir George Clerk, the Allied Commissioner to Budapest, was considered as showing the political conditions in Hungary were much improved and that there were indications of a coalition government being organized shortly in Budapest with which the Peace Conference could deal. Another subject considered by the Council was the elections held in Silesia. A note to Germany was framed advising it to disregard these elections. A note was also sent to Germany warning the Berlin government that the sale of German aviation material is a violation of the armistice and will not be tolerated.

TO NEGOTIATE FOR PEACE

(By Associated Press)
Helsinki, Nov. 13.—Peace negotiations between the Estonians and the Bolsheviks will begin Saturday it was announced here today. The Lithuanians will not participate in the negotiations.

(By Associated Press)
Detroit, Mich., Nov. 13.—One of the biggest jail deliveries ever planned involving 300 prisoners, including many radicals lately taken, was frustrated at the Wayne County Jail yesterday afternoon through information given Sheriff I. J. Coffin by a trusty it became known today. The plot according to the sheriff's information was conceived by seven inmates. It was planned that heavily armed accomplices should come to the jail during visiting hours, bring for the ringleaders a basket too large to pass through the bars. This would necessitate opening the door to the ward occupied by the conspirators. Then it was planned that the conspirators overpower the guards, other accomplices raiding the jail office and seizing keys to the cell blocks. Destruction of telephone communication and seizure of riot guns and other weapons to hinder successful pursuit also were contemplated. The jail recently was the scene of a delivery that liberated nearly 100 men.

London, Nov. 13.—Premier Lloyd George declared in the House of Commons today that no person at any time on his behalf or with his knowledge had interviewed Bolshevik representatives in order to learn whether negotiations for peace might be opened and upon what terms. Mine superintendents, managers, foremen, assistant bosses and office clerks were immediately called upon to fill the places of the men who quit. Whether this is a violation of the injunction granted the government by Federal Judge Anderson at Indianapolis, was not generally known among operators or miners owing to the fact that the call was made at a mass meeting and not directly by officials of the miners.

NO UNION FOR GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES

Washington, Nov. 12.—Affiliation of Government employees' organizations with any union federation which advocates strikes as a means of settling disputes would be prohibited under an amendment to a bill providing increased pay for Washington police, which was passed tonight by the Senate and sent to conference.

The amendment was proposed by Senator Myers, Democrat, Montana, and was adopted by a vote of 70-20. Senator Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi, opposed the amendment, declaring it was too far-reaching and would not only affect postal employees, but also Government workers in navy yards, munitions plants and even on railroad plants and even on railroads while they are under Government control.

Durham, Nov. 12.—Maine comes to New Hampshire Saturday with the greatest eleven that ever represented the Maine institution, this being the unanimous opinion of the Maine Alumni; and will come to New Hampshire fully confident of victory. A heavy fast eleven, full of light and well trained in a smashing offensive game. Maine bases her offensive strength on a fierce offensive offense combined with end runs and forward passing.

Against Maine will be one of the best elevens that ever represented the New Hampshire State college. A team that has met and defeated all this fall. With a practically veteran eleven New Hampshire has found no trouble in stopping their opponents and with the ever dangerous "Dutch" Connors they have a wonderful open offense. It should be a great battle from the start. Saturday's game will start at 2.15 sharp, and the rivalry game will be followed by the Freshmen-Tilton Seminary game which closes the Freshmen schedule.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody can Tell when you Darken Gray, Faded Hair with Sage Tea.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. It's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.

JITNEYS RUIN CAR PROFITS

Hon. Loring, chairman of the public trustees of the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Company, has notified Mayor John J. Hurley of Lawrence that the time has come when that city must choose between street railway and jitney service.

"Unless effective measures to restrict the jitney competition are adopted by Nov. 26 street railway service on all local lines, and most of the interurban lines, will be discontinued on and after that date," says the letter of Chairman Loring. It is pointed out that an estimate shows that the unelected jitneys are responsible for a monthly loss to the railway of $25,000 per month, or $300,000 a year.

Just What a HOT SPOT Chalmers Saves on a Cold Day

MOST cars are hard to start on a cold day. There is a notable exception in the Hot Spot Chalmers.

It responds to the pressure of the starter button, "warms up" quickly and runs at a high point of efficiency in a few moments.

It saves many things on a cold day:

1. Your battery
2. Your gas
3. Your time
4. Your temper

Hot Spot and Ram's horn provide cold weather efficiency. They "crack up" the gas, rush it to the cylinders before it can condense, and "warm up" the engine in quick time.

Let us explain to you just how these two magnificent devices do the work. Once you understand them your admiration will grow stronger for a Hot Spot Chalmers.

SUCCESS UP TO NAVY YARD MEN

Red Cross Falls Behind on Members Owing to Failure to Canvas the Navy Yard--Enrollment to be Held Open For the Week

The campaign for more enrollments of Red Cross members will be continued for this week in this city, with the hopes of bringing the Portsmouth Chapter up to somewhere near where they were last year.

At a meeting of the Committee at the Chamber of Commerce rooms on Wednesday afternoon, Chairman Sise announced that the membership so far secured in this city were about 2000, with the Atlantic Ship Yard, the Atlantic Heights and some other places still to be heard from. Even if these places come up to expectations the city will fall far behind the 7200 members of last year.

The subscriptions for the National Fund are far behind and this city will not make her quota or half of it.

The principal cause of the poor showing in this section, is the fact that an order was issued by the Acting Commandant of the Navy Yard, that now that peace is on, no subscriptions may be collected in the Navy Yard. He did, however, agree to issue an order to the effect that the leading men or ship committees from each shop may take subscriptions during the noon hour, but this some mistake the order was not issued and the result is that there has been an absolute failure at the yard.

If the Navy Yard made their usual grand showing, that they have made in every other drive, the city would be well up and possible the 5000 mark in membership reached. The Portsmouth committee voted to make a direct appeal to the men of the Navy yard, that they renew their subscriptions to the Red Cross and that they give their names and $1 to their Leadership or shop committee, or for the convenience of those who wish to renew their membership or take out a new one the Red Cross Hut on Market Square will be kept open on Friday afternoon and Saturday afternoon and evening.

Portsmouth has always made a wonderful showing and if the Navy Yard workers will make a good showing in their renewal Portsmouth will maintain its position as being among the leaders.

Out of the same two thousand names so far secured the High School girls in their canvases have turned in over a thousand. They have for the first week of this kind made a wonderful showing and have already equaled the record of the Women's Unit of last year. The same is true of the teams in the business district they are practically up to that of a year ago.

Up to 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon there had been reported to the New England Red Cross headquarters a total of 327,477 new members for 1920 as a result of the Third Rollcall. Maine had contributed 39,044 members; New Hampshire, 27,731; Vermont, 2941; Massachusetts, 356,897, and Rhode Island, 53,211. Thirty-four chapters had not at that time sent in any sort of report, and a number, including some in Greater Boston, are continuing the campaign for a few days. The last report for Metropolitan Boston gives 101,572 members and $101,000 cash, but there are a number of places yet to be heard from, and final reports are in form comparatively few committees.

I. W. W. BEING ROUNDED UP IN WASHINGTON

(By Associated Press)

Centennial, Wash., Nov. 12.—Cities of Western Washington joined with Centralia today in arresting members of the I. W. W.'s and raids everywhere following the firing on a Armistice Day parade yesterday, and the killing of four American soldiers, one more is expected to die and one alleged I. W. W. has been lynched. Twenty-two men and one woman reported to be radicals were placed in the jail and later four men and one woman were taken to the county jail at Chehalis by National Guardsmen who are patrolling the streets.

Raids were made in Seattle, Tacoma and Arbuckle. In Seattle eleven men were arrested and tons of radical literature taken and at Tacoma, thirty-four were arrested and much "red" literature taken. At Arbuckle a large quantity of literature was taken and the records of the local I. W. W. were seized.

DEATH RATE FROM CANCER ON INCREASE

London, Nov. 12.—If the present death-rate from cancer is allowed to go unchecked no fewer than 25,000,000 people out of the present population of the world must die of this scourge," says Dr. Robert Bell, vice president of the International Cancer Research Society. He makes a plea for the treatment of cancer without operation.

MINERS WILL NOT APPEAL FROM DECISION

(By Associated Press)
Indianapolis, Nov. 12.—The United Miners of America, contrary to previous announcement have decided to withhold their appeal in the injunction proceedings which brought about the order to call off the coal strike. Mr. Henry Warren, chief counsel for the Mine Workers tonight stated that the outcome of the conference of the representatives of the miners and the operators with Secretary Wilson at Washington on Friday, would depend to a large extent whether the case would be carried any farther. The Mine Workers counsel have thirty days in which to file an appeal.

The decision of the miners is taken to mean that the suit of the government against the union for the coal strike was not an attack to prevent the rights of men to strike, but to prevent a violation of the law, the Labor Act.

Washington, Nov. 12.—The apparent unwillingness of the coal miners to return to work at the old wage scale, today, made the government put forth renewed efforts to bring about a new wage scale. Secretary Wilson, without waiting for the formal acceptance of the operators began modifying the way for an agreement between the operators and the miners for a new wage scale. Both sides have notified the Secretary that they will attend the conference on Friday. Spokesmen for the miners said that if the mine owners came to the meeting in a conciliatory mood that a new wage scale could be arranged by Saturday night.

The indicated suggestion of the mining activities in the Union field was not a surprise to the Government officials, or accepted as an actual test of the miners willingness to obey the order ending the strike off. It was pointed out that the complete distribution of the order might take some time. It is also felt that there will be a large number who will remain away from work until some agreement is reached on the wage scale.

Labor leaders who frankly admit that the strike was not supported by public opinion, took courage today from what they learned the sentiment in the editorials of the papers of the country, which admit that the miners should be given better wages.

The order of fuel Administrator Garfield fixing the maximum price on soft and lignite coal was modified by Mr. Garfield tonight so far as it applies to such contracts shipped on or after Nov. 13.

SENATE TO FORCE VOTE ON TREATY

Washington, Nov. 12.—Summary action to close down debate on the treaty today to prevent what is indicated may be the beginning of a filibuster by the men who are opposed to the ratification of the treaty. Two petitions for the enforcement of the cloture rule were prepared tonight ready to be introduced tomorrow should it become apparent that they would be necessary. The first was drawn by the democrats and the other being prepared tonight was the work of the mild reservationists. Under this rule upon which a vote could be taken by Saturday the debate would be limited to one hour in all by any one senator and bring about a final vote on the treaty by the middle of next week.

Government Ownership Undesirable

Ex-United States Senator John W. Weeks of Massachusetts is an able and experienced business man, and he is against government ownership and operation of the railroads. This is because he believes that work can be done more economically by individuals or corporations than by the government, a conviction that the great majority of practical business men share.

In a recently published article Mr. Weeks mentions a well known fact when he says that "every step the government takes is a little more expensive than that taken by a corporation or an individual." He then proceeds: "I think it is dawning upon even those who have been advocating government ownership and operation that it is impossible for it to conduct industrial operations economically. Of course the cost, in many cases, may be passed along to the public, and, in all cases, in the end the public pays for the excessive cost, whether the operation is conducted by the farmer, manufacturer or the government. But if the cost of government production is greater than in the case of a corporation or an individual, why should the public be content or willing to accept the general proposition of government ownership and operation?"

The experience of the government in operating the railroads of the country since it took them over as a war measure has not been such as to stimulate the desire for further government activities in business in the minds of men who are disposed to think and count the cost. There has been a stiff advance in passenger and freight rates, and yet the deficit runs into the millions. The loss must be made up by the tax payers, who are entirely excusable in not enjoying the prospect ahead of them.

It is a notorious fact that, as this paper has before pointed out, any work done by the government costs more than it would if done on a purely business basis. It is practically impossible to keep politics out of anything to which the government lays its hand, and practical men do not need to be told that politics and business make one of the worst mixtures in the world, except for the leeches who through politics get their heads into the business and manipulate that for what there is in it for them instead of what there should be in it for the public.

Fairness compels the admission that conditions have been far from normal since the government took charge of the railroads, yet the roads have never been busier, and the fact that they have not paid expenses means that there has been a lack of good business management somewhere. The people of this country pride themselves on their business ability, but they can take little pride in the fact that the railroads, worked to capacity, have run behind ever since the government assumed their management and operation.

Mr. Weeks is right. Corporations and individuals can handle business matters better than the government can, and the business men of the country know it. For this reason they should insist that the railroads be restored to their owners at the earliest practicable date, to the end that they may be placed on a paying basis and the people relieved of a burden of unnecessary taxation.

The Sabbath Conference to be held at Concord the 18th will be of prime interest to the churches of the state, and it is expected there will be delegations present from all parts of New Hampshire. A good program has been arranged and able speakers will be heard.

Some of the striking butchers in Chicago are endeavoring to show the public that there is immense profiteering in meat. Undoubtedly there is, and yet under the circumstances there are many who will regard these strikers as prejudiced willeesses.

The elimination of "dead man's curve" at Wells will be an improvement mightily appreciated by the public. It has long been a danger point of the first magnitude and the work to be done there will be worth far more than the cost.

Massachusetts liquor interests regard the vote on 4 per cent beer last week as a "rebuke" to Congress. But the action, like that in some other states, comes too late to be anything but a "rebuke."

The Chamber of Commerce has given the housing project a helpful boost. Now let every progressive citizen lend his aid to the movement and gratifying results will be sure to follow.

The high cost of living apparently applies to the New York Stock Exchange, a seat in which has just been sold for $140,000, the highest price on record.

RADICALS CAUSE TROUBLE IN COAL FIELDS

Washington, Nov. 13.—Activities of radicals threatened serious trouble in the bituminous coal mine fields of West Virginia according to reports received today by the Department of Justice. The situation in Monongahela and Taylor counties was described by department of Justice officials as "particularly nasty." Meetings directed and attended largely by Russians have precipitated some violence among the miners, the report said.

NAVY YARD NOTES

Must Stand Expense

A notice has been received at the yard regarding the death of a naval reserve which announces that a naval reserve will be furnished in cases where the deceased was in active duty. The expense, if any, must not be incurred by the department, so it will fall upon the next of kin of the deceased to pay the transportation to and from the place of service. Neither will the naval ensign be turned over to the next of kin as in the case of a member of the regular establishment, but it will have to be returned to the department.

Another Crew Added

Under the new schedule of the yard, Nov. 10, 1918 which became effective on Wednesday, three crews will be attached to the boat, and the same will apply to civilian watchmen on duty at the landings on both sides of the river.

NORTH CHURCH PARISH HAS RECEPTION

The first parish reception of the season of the North Church was held at the parish house on Middle street Wednesday evening and proved an especially pleasant affair. The King's Daughters of the parish were hostesses. The rooms were decorated in keeping with the harvest season, traces of corn and vegetables, pumpkins and carrots, were used in profusion and arranged artistically, the color scheme being entirely in orange and green. Orange crepe paper was festooned on the electroliers. Mrs. Charles P. Derry and Miss Clyde Spilney were in charge of the decorative scheme.

The serving tables were daintily set and beautified with yellow chrysanthemums and marigolds. Mrs. Charles W. Gray, Mrs. Arthur Allen, Mrs. Rita Jenkins and Mrs. Ewer poured. Mrs. E. L. Chaney, Mrs. Arthur P. Lauce, Mrs. I. H. Washburn and Mrs. Jordan had charge of the kitchen.

Coffee, chocolate assorted cake and fancy wafers were served. The servers were Mrs. Fred Hayes, Mrs. Walis Loan, Mrs. H. L. Taylor, Mrs. S. Hilkey, Mrs. Perrone.

The pastor, Rev. Lucius H. Thayer and wife greeted all pleasantly and the affair was entirely informal. Miss Susan Northwick delightfully rendered vocal solos which added to the interest of the evening.

HAS BEEN HUNTING FOR HER BAGGAGE SINCE LAST JULY

Nurse's Property Found by the K. of C. in Two Weeks' Time.

One can imagine the trouble caused by stray baggage to the owners, as well as the government, from the recent case of Miss Eva P. Canfield, a Red Cross nurse who served in overseas work during a greater part of the war.

Miss Canfield arrived in this country on July 13 last, and her trunk and other personal baggage reached her on Saturday last.

After several attempts to locate her property through the Department of Lost Baggage and by other means she placed the matter in the hands of the K. of C., who discovered her belongings at Hoboken, N. J., within two weeks' time.

At present there are 150,000 pieces of baggage belonging to members of the American Expeditionary forces on the government docks at Hoboken, N. J., which have come from overseas and remain unclaimed by their owners. Much of this baggage is marked with names only and cannot be forwarded to the owners.

All owners of lost baggage should forward their claims and present address to the Lost Baggage Branch, Pier No. 2, Hoboken, New Jersey, with an accurate description of the missing property. The baggage will be forwarded by express at government expense if on hand at Hoboken.

BOYS TIE A COP TO FENCE POST

Then They Rang the School House Bell to Further Humiliate Captive.

The expression "Tied to a Post" can be heard more than ever in Saco, since a cop in that town was seized by a dozen or more school boys, bound securely and then hook him up to a post near the Spring street school house.

After giving the cop a chance to do the Houdini act the boys got into the school house and rang the bell for further orders.

The cop pulled and jerked, but it was no use, he was there until the Chief of Police and two other cops arrived on the scene and released him.

No arrests were made and it is said the marshal and his men had hard work keeping their faces straight. All of the mischievous youngsters were given a free lecture and their names were reported later to Superintendent of Schools Young, who in turn may bring the matter before the school board for appropriate action.

CHILDREN LONG FOR PLAYGROUND

Parent-Teachers' Association Will Present Petition to City Government.

The question of a suitable playground for the Farragut school is still being agitated and it is hoped something definite will be done in the matter before long. Three hundred and fifty children attend this school and the playground space is only equal to about seven square feet for each child. Many of these children live in congested districts and have not a foot of ground on which to play at their homes and the need of a suitable playground at the school is plainly apparent. The Parent-Teacher Association of the Farragut school became much interested in the school playground question some time ago and last spring the children had a playground parade marching through the business streets after which they called upon Mayor Hilsop at City Hall. At a meeting of the city government soon after Mayor Hilsop was given power to act on the matter.

The following petition is to be presented by the Parent-Teacher Association of the school at the next meeting of the city government.

Portsmouth, N. H., Oct. 23, 1919. To the Honorable Mayor and Council of the City of Portsmouth:

We, the undersigned, members of the Parent-Teacher Association of the Farragut school and other citizens, beg to call to your attention to the great need of a playground for the children of the Farragut school. At present there are about seven square feet per child.

This means that the children must play in the street in constant danger from passing teams and automobiles. It means, also, that these children are being deprived of the unadulterated rights of every American child—room to play freely and fresh air to breathe.

SEC. DANIELS RECOMMENDS PAY INCREASE

Washington, Nov. 12.—Unlucky times, pay increases as the latest solution of the most difficult problem now facing the Navy—that of retaining the present officers and men and obtaining new ones. Secretary Daniels recommends to the House Naval Committee (temporary increases aggregating $50,000,000 a year for all officers and men) the proposed new pay schedule, which would remain in effect until June 30, 1921. He also told the committee that funds allocated for the purpose of public reception should be increased.

The annual increases, with similar advances in the pay of officers of corresponding rank in the Marine Corps, were recommended:

Admirals, rear admirals, vice admirals and captains, $1000.
Commanders, $900.
Lieutenant commanders, $840.
Lieutenants, senior grade, $720.
Lieutenants, junior grade, $680.
Ensigns and warrant officers, $450.
Monthly pay of chief petty officers would be limited to $120, and that of other enlisted men $40, instead of $32-60.

The fans who witnessed the boxing show of the Rockingham A. C. at Freeman's hall on Wednesday evening, got their money's worth in action, for all three bouts were fast and full of action. Two of them went to a draw and the third was given to Joe Gibbs the light weight champion of the navy at the end of twelve fast rounds with Jimmy Farren a Y. D. Ind.

It was a fast and furious bout, Gibbs who is a tall rangy lad is left handed, and has a long reach and a most peculiar style, but for all of that he is every inch a fighter. He fought on Tuesday night and was in fine shape last night despite that. Farren is a different type, more compact and shorter, but for all of that a wonderful little fighter and a game, as they make them. In fact his continuing the last four rounds is questionable.

The bout from the opening round was fast with both men working hard and it was about an even thing up to the eighth round, when Gibbs had the inside for that round. Here it was noticed that Farren's right elbow was swelling and it looked as though it had been against. He apparently did not suffer from the swelling but in the next round did not have much use of it. His seconds wanted to call it off, but Farren strongly objected. In the tenth round to any such thing and there was nothing to do for the referee but keep them going.

Gibbs who had been landing heavily on Farren seemed to lack the punch and in the next two rounds although he hit him at will, Farren covered so well that he was unable to get across a slop producer and they went the entire fight and ending at the finish. Referee twelve acts and with both men on their Murphy rightfully gave the decision to Gibbs.

Gibbs who is one of the best boys fighting in New England of late is a hard lad with a shifting style, and a reach that bothers the best of them. Farren however got inside repeatedly, but he did so by opening himself to some savage returns. He has a faculty of covering himself exceptionally well and while Gibbs took the smile off, Farren was game at all times and apparently had unlimited confidence in himself. With both men in perfect condition Gibbs a week lay off before the bout and Farren with a well arm, it would be a wonderful battle for both are the open fighting and do very little stalling or clinching.

Bubel O'Neil of Lynn went eight rounds to a draw with Eddie Nardo who substituted for Flash Rogers who has a strained hand and was unable to show. They fought here two weeks ago and it was a good bout but last night

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sluggishness—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them, 10c and 25c.

was even better. Both were evidently looking for a decision and they swapped punches at a lively rate. O'Neil keeping Nardo away with a left arm jab of his. A decision of a draw was made.

The preliminary was between Young Dempsey of Mount Boston and Young Leonard of Chelsea and it was a good eight round fight with both boys willing and in fine condition. They were given a draw. Referee Ed Murphy handled the bouts in fine shape, and used excellent judgment.

BAKER PASSES ARMY QUESTION

"I probably will not know when demobilization is completed," said Secretary of War Newton D. Baker, who was in Boston Wednesday to testify in the Cape Cod Court case now on trial in the Federal Court.

"You see it is purely a legal question and the exact time when it is completed will be determined by the Attorney-General."

Secretary Baker refused to comment on the scant prohibition victory in Ohio, and declared he "didn't know anything about politics anywhere"—not even in his own state.

ORIGIN OF FRENCH TRICOLOR

The tricolor was not officially recognized as France's national emblem until the Revolution. Yet at the beginning of the eighteenth century French soldiers donned the tricolor after the alliance formed between the kings of France and Spain and the Elector of Bavaria. When the three armies were combined it was decided the soldiers should don a cockade to symbolize better the union of the three nations, that would unite the colors of each. This it was that the white of France was allied to the red of Spain and the blue of Bavaria.

However, in 1789, the Revolution came very near adopting green, popularized by Camille Desmoulins at the Palais Royal as the national emblem. But it was remembered that in time that green was the livery of the Court of Artois, the most unpopular of all princes, and it was rejected. Then it was proposed that France should adopt the colors of its capital, Paris, red and blue, already celebrated in more than one popular riot, and worn by Provost Etienne Marquet as early as 1468, on his revolutionary hood. To these was soon joined white, which belonged to the national guard of Paris, still faithful to royalty and its emblems.

London, Nov. 12.—When President Poincare of France, pays his visit to the King and Queen of England he will occupy the famous Belgian rooms in Buckingham Palace, a courtesy which in itself is recognition of M. Poincare's position as head of one of the great powers. These rooms were assigned to President and Mrs. Wilson when they were guests of the British sovereign.

This apartment was arranged, decorated and furnished in 1838-39 by Queen Victoria for the occupation of her uncle, King Leopold and his second wife, daughter of Louis Philippe, as it was then expected that they would visit London frequently. As time passed it became the custom for any sovereign or prince who were guests at the palace.

POLICE COURT

The case of Charles Silver against Joseph Cardinelli, which grew out of a row Wednesday on Daniel Street where the men are employed on the new bank building, was heard in the municipal court this morning.

The trouble started over some work. Cardinelli testified that Silver threw some bricks at him in the basement, but Silver denied that he did anything of the kind.

Silver showed his injured shoulder which was caused, he said, by a blow from a shovel in the hands of Cardinelli, who came up from behind and jumped him with the scoop.

After both sides concluded their evidence the court continued the case for sentence.

Cardinelli was then arrested on a capias following a civil suit for $1000 brought by the plaintiff Silver. The defendant was shortly released on bail of $1,000.

ABLE SPEAKER TALKS BEFORE GRAFFORT CLUB

Mrs. Schoonmaker Speaks on
"How Cities Are Governed."

Mrs. Nancy M. Schoonmaker, author and lecturer of civic affairs, spoke under the auspices of the Graffort Club Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at Pelco Hall. The lecture was opened to the public and nearly 200 were in attendance.

The subject of the lecture was "How Cities are Governed," and Mrs. Schoonmaker began by relating how people live under government and the reasons for government, tracing its evolution through time from the family group of earliest days. She attributed the establishment of town and city government to the common needs of the people bringing them together under some central authority. She asked the audience to consider how women could be part from the functions of government when their needs and their daily lives are so bound up in it. She differentiated between what she called a pure democracy where all the people come together for the making of the laws, and the republic where the people are served by representatives elected by them. Explanation was given of the method by which towns are formed into cities by securing permission from the state and the adoption of a city charter. Stress was laid upon the importance of choosing the right kind of men to draw up the charter by which the future city should be governed.

Mrs. Schoonmaker told of some of the dangers of unfair politics and how such politics had worked for the changing of ward lines to the advantage of some particular party. She spoke in detail of the operation of the present city government and expressed the opinion that it was not the ideal form. She said further that most American cities are misgoverned and that the Mayor of a city should be a business man and not chosen because he is a friendly fellow; that many mayors were unable to devote as much time to the office as necessary with a correspondingly inferior efficiency. It was said that a Mayor is often elected because he represents some political party rather than upon the consideration of being a good man for the place.

Mrs. Schoonmaker said that the failure of municipal government is more often due to inefficiency than to party politics, but that the people of a democracy must always remember that the remedy for this condition lies in their own hands. She advocated the City Manager system, favoring a commission of five or seven picked men, this commission to appoint a City Manager, to devote his whole time to the job, his appointment to be made outside of political party and solely because of business ability, integrity and fitness; in other words the city to be run as a big business corporation, with the City Manager at the head. She favored long term of office rather than the short term, as a business principle, claiming no business could be run successfully with a constantly changing force.

Mrs. Schoonmaker stated that she saw no reason why women could not offer their services and be as efficient as men in city affairs. She closed by saying that good government could not be made by good intentions, it must be secured by eternal vigilance.

Mrs. Schoonmaker spoke on the same subject in the evening at High School Assembly hall. She speaks again in Portsmouth on Nov. 24th at 3:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. upon the subject of "State and Nation," and again on Dec. 10th at the same hours upon "Political Parties in Elections." These lectures are to be given in the North Church Chapel.

Mrs. Schoonmaker is an exceedingly interesting speaker, with a thorough grasp of her subject, and from the beginning to the close of her lecture she was listened to with interest. Her success as a citizenship lecturer and educator has so spread through Connecticut that she is receiving calls to speak in many other states. She has aroused so much interest in her work that she has been able to build up a Department of Citizenship which reaches throughout the state of Connecticut.
